The “Aham Brahamashmi” senses the act of solving something forming a complex whole through complementary improvisation of logic, enriched by scientific and philosophical equanimity. That is key of Spectrodynamic (Time•Energy Reciprocity) in conformity with the principle of originative logic of the origination of mathematics, parenthesis to the Vedic term of infinity that is “Isa (∞)”, signifying both the endless extent of fineness and vastness of entirety on principle.

“Satya Gyana ($\bar{O}m$) Anantam (∞) Brahama”:

The “Satyam Gyanamanantam Brahama” senses that something forming a complex whole that notifying the logical complement of wholeness of the Zero ($0 \equiv 0^x$), wherein the $\bar{O}m \equiv \text{Spin}1C \ 0 \equiv 0^x$ is the improvised complementary logic of something forming a complex whole, in conformity with the principles of both ubiquity of Energy and “Isa {Infinity (∞)}, towards both the endless extent of tininess and vastness of entirety. Henceforth it will be the focus of Vedic Ethos and Logos.

VEDIC INNATE CONNECTION WITH ARYANS

The Vedas and Upanishads have been written on space, time and energy in cryptographic form, intended for attainment of the wisdom of entirety besides protection against misappropriation of its content. Thereof those whose secret and sacred resolute texts are Vedas, those whose scientific and philosophical insight is constant by the aggregated sense of the Vedic Key Doctrines, those whose symbol of scientific and philosophical equanimity is $\bar{O}m$, those who are the holder and conveyer of the wisdom of absolute wholeness and those who are worshippers of time are belongs to the ancient title of Aryans of the oldest civilization. The book under the title of A VEDIC CONCORDANCE written by Maurice Bloomfield is the ready reference of the Vedic Innate Connection With Aryans.

CRYPTOGRAPHIC SENSE OF “BRAHAMA”

Brahama:

The Brahama senses The ubiquity of something autogenous that forming a complex whole towards both the extremities of endless extent of tininess and vastness of entirety, in conformity with the explicatory originative logic of the mathematics that is “Isa {Infinity (∞)}. This is the fundamental of the principle of scientific and philosophical equanimity that says that energy neither created, nor can be destroyed or divided.
